

Checklist of What to Bring with you to the Police, to Report a Missing Person in Amsterdam

- Recent photo of the missing person
- Details of what they were wearing when last seen, any distinguishing marks on their body (birthmarks, tattoos), accent, glasses, jewelry etc
- Where last seen, date, location, time and with whom
- What the person usually carries in their wallet/purse/bag (bring photo if you have one)
- Details of any vehicle owned or used by the person (bring photos if you have any).
- Details of any medications the person may require and what it is used to treat
- Types of credit cards carried, other cards
- Bank account details
- A contact list of the persons friends, relatives and colleagues.
- Mobile phone number if the missing person was carrying one at the time
- Social security number (if working in Holland)
- Registered number (if working in Holland)
- Copy of Passport if you have it
- Home address
- Name of employer and address
- Usual path /journey to go home if relevant

This list is non-exhaustive and you may think of other things to bring that could be of help.